

Curriculum Vitae

Name: Philip Colin Barlow. B.Sc. (Hons) CPAg
Address: 1 Chemine de Doucine, Geronce 64400, France.
Telephone 0033 5 59 88 08 65
Email hampshireoak@gmail.com
Birth Date: 20-06-55.
Birth Place: Malta. British Citizen Permanent Resident New Zealand Visa
Status: Married.

Education & Qualifications.

2011 May University of Catalonia Spain. CODAWORK11

4 day course on compositional data analysis.

2009 --- Instep Aquitaine Cours Français deux jours par semaine.

CPAg (1998/2011) Certified Practising Agriculturist

2007 Massey University. Certificate in Sustainable Nutrient Management Agriculture

2007 OANZ (Organics Aotearoa New Zealand) Approved “Smart Start Consultant”

2006 Globalgap Compliance No EGPMO140-C00405

2005 to 2007: Senior Assessor of the New Zealand “Ballance” Farm Environmental Awards

2004: Maori Culture 1 Day Course. Te Wananga O Aotearoa

2002: Biogro Accreditation as Advisor for organic producers.

1999: Lincoln University:

Advanced Agricultural Technology Course (Pasture Management)

1997: Brookside Laboratories Inc Ohio

Certified Agronomist and Agricultural Consultant

1991 - 1994: University College of North Wales Bangor.

B.Sc. Joint Hons. Soil Science/Botany

Final year Hons project: Soil variation and the distribution of plant species in a natural meadow.

1st prize was awarded for the best Hons project presentation in the plant science section.

1990 - 1991: Pencraig Agricultural College Llangefni Anglesey.

City & Guilds Horticulture Phase 1 & 2 both with Distinctions.

Recipient of the Gareth Evans Memorial Award as Horticultural Student of the Year 1991.

Welsh Joint Education Committee certificate:

City & Guilds: Horticultural Accounts. - Distinction

City & Guilds: Horticultural Management.- Credit.

1970/1971: Roberts Fruit Tree & Shrub Nursery. Wickham, Hants.

Trainee Horticulturist. Propagation, plant husbandry & fruit production.

1966 - 1970: Bishopfield Secondary Modern School Fareham Hants. UK.

Employment History.

April 2000.. Present

Bio Soil & Crop Consultancy.

Own Business Consulting on Soils, Fertilisers and Crop Nutrition both organic and conventional. Specialising in Kiwifruit (currently 275 Orchards 908 Ha) also Avocado, Blueberry and Pasture. .

May 1996 – April 2000.

Soil Analysis Services NZ Ltd

Company Agronomist.

February - May 1996:

Aongatete Cool Store, Fruit quality and botrytis assessment..

August 1994 - December 1995: Travers Morgan PLC UK.

Horticultural Clerk of Works.

1987/1996: Full time student also Sheep farming & Agricultural/Horticultural Contracting, North Wales.

1971/1987: Own Business Horticultural/Agricultural Contracting Specialising in Fruit (apples, pears, cobnuts, strawberries and currants). Skills: Pruning, grafting, harvest management, weed control.

Current Member of:

Brookside Association of Professional Consultants Ohio USA (since 1997)

NZ Institute of Agricultural & Horticultural Science (BOP Secretary Since 1996)

Soil Science Society of New Zealand

The New Zealand Grassland Association

Biogro New Zealand

COKA (Certified Organic Kiwifruit Association)

Articles published:

NZ Kiwifruit Journal July/August 2000

“The Vital Role of Plant Roots”

The Orchardist May 2001

Getting much more from leaf and soil analysis

The New Zealand Soil Science Society Journal 2005. (Principal Author)

The Effects of Chrome Copper Arsenic Treated Posts on Soil Chemistry and Biology in Kiwifruit Orchards.

Interests: Family Life, Bush Walking, Astronomy, Sailing, Fishing, and Reading.

References: Available on request
